No longer in full-time work? Keen to make new friends and pursue your interests?

Lichfield u3a runs over 60 low-cost, local interest groups, from Art to Walking.

Find out more : look at our website (google “Lichfield u3a”) or email or phone us, and we’ll contact you.

Each month we have an open meeting in Lichfield Guildhall with a speaker: why not come along?

It’s 2pm-3:30pm on the second Wednesday of each month. Speakers are advertised on our website and on a poster outside the Guildhall. Let us know you’re coming, and we’ll say Hello.

Membership is £12/year, and you can join as many groups as you like. We have links with other local u3as, so you can go to their groups for no extra fee.

We’re non-profit so groups charge only enough to cover their costs, e.g. renting a room.

You can go along to a group at least twice before you join, to see what you think. Some meet weekly, some monthly, in all kinds of places, including some members’ homes. Come and meet us!

Run by members, for members —come along & see

Groups reflect our members' interests— we walk, play music, board games and sports, go out to lunch, take photos, study Philosophy, History, Art and more!

Enquire by email or phone, we'll contact the Group Leader & ask them to get in touch. If they're away, there may be a delay but please persist - and how about trying more than one group?

Come to our Monthly Meetings

The second Wed of each month, 2pm, at the Guildhall

Check in at the Welcome Desk (and if you can, let us know you're coming, via email or phone) and take a seat with other members..

Our Speaker talks for about 45min, then we have tea/coffee & catch up with friends. Topics are on our website and on a poster outside the Guildhall.

One of our speakers, author Sally Jenkins, told us "How to make money out of Murder."

OUR GROUPS: run by members, for members

We encourage members to share their skills, knowledge and enthusiasms, and so form groups of likeminded people.

If there's nothing in our current list of groups for you, or the current group is full, we can help you to set up a new one. If you have talents to share, let us know.

You can go along to a group twice before you join, to see what you think.

See our website for more information.

Find out more about the u3a movement

See the national website, www.u3a.org.uk

u3a's a UK-wide movement of people no longer in full time work who come together to enjoy a wide range of interests, make friends, learn, and have a good time. There are over 1000 u3as in the UK, and there's even an online u3a that you can join, called "Trust u3a." See the national u3a website.

There are national and regional events, online and face-to-face, so you can learn and contribute. Most of them are free!

Our members' interests are represented to the national u3a Board by our Regional Trustee for the West Midlands. You can join national, regional or local u3a committees if you'd like to be more involved.
