

General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR)

Following the introduction of GDPR in May 2018 your Committee has undertaken a thorough review of the policies and procedures relating to data collection and processing practised by Liphook U3A, to ensure that we are fully compliant with this new law. In particular, the practice of some groups of retaining a list of emergency contact's details in case of accident or illness is not only prudent it is fully compliant with GDPR.