

WEBSITE PRIVACY STATEMENT

Liphook U3A respects the privacy of our Website users and is dedicated to making your experience on our website and with our organisation the best it can be. The following policy describes how we gather information from our site's visitors and what we do with it.

How We Collect Information.

Our website is not set up to track, collect, or distribute personal information (such as name, address, e-mail address, telephone number and product preferences). We gather information when you voluntarily input your contact information in order to receive information, email newsletters.

We use electronic records to compile statistics about how visitors interact with our Website such as which sections are visited most often. These statistics contain no personal information. By voluntarily providing us with information about yourself, you are consenting to our use of it in accordance with this policy.

Opt-in / Opt-out

We offer you every opportunity to opt out of the email communication if and when you like by simply clicking "unsubscribe" within the content of these communication pieces. If you do request to "opt-out" of future communication we will honour your requests as soon as practical. On every piece of email communication we also provide a physical address and 'phone contact information.

How We Use Personal Information

Liphook U3A uses the personally identifiable information we collect for membership purposes such as mailing newsletters and monthly bulletins, information and answering questions via e-mail or phone. Unless required by law or if pertinent to a judicial or governmental investigation, personally identifiable information is not shared with other organisations or persons. Should we ever need to make an exception, we will let you know at the point where you input the information on the online form.