

50+ Years in Sport

A talk by Patricia Gregory

Friday 6th August 2021 at 2.00 pm on Zoom

After starting her own football team, White Ribbon, Patricia Gregory was one of the founders of the Women's Football Association in the late 1960s. She was one of the first women in England to qualify as a referee and was a member of the UEFA women's football committee for fourteen years. Professionally, she spent over 45 years in sports broadcasting being part of the BBC team covering major events such as Olympic Games and World Cup football.

Patricia is a member of our Sports discussion group and has kindly agreed to give a talk about her more than 50 years in sport. This will take place on Zoom on Friday 6th August at 2.00 pm.

Redbridge & District u3a is happy for other u3a members to join us for this talk. It is a free event, but spaces are limited.
