

Useful websites on plant topics

Derby City Council – Flora of Derbyshire – checklist and maps

<http://www.derby.gov.uk/dccwebdev/museum/flora/flora.aspx?gotopage=coverage>

Derbyshire Biological Records

<http://www.derbyshirebiodiversity.org.uk/recording/submit.php>

Photoimages – Wild flowers of Derbyshire

<http://www.flickr.com/groups/derbyshireflora>

Plantlife aims to protect wild plants and fungi

http://www.plantlife.org.uk/things_to_do/regions/east_midlands

Flora Locale promotes good practice in the use and sourcing of our wild flora

<http://www.floralocale.org/v.asp?level2id=5906&depth=1&rootid=5906>

Derbyshire Wildlife Trust

<http://www.derbyshirewildlifetrust.org.uk/>

Long Eaton Natural History Society meets monthly with summer visits and winter talks

<http://www.lensweb.wordpress.com>

The Woodland Trust works to plant native trees, protect them and inspire people in this

<http://www.woodlandtrust.org.uk> and

<http://www.woodlandtrust.org.uk/en/visit-woods/Pages/visitwoods.aspx>

Woodland Trust tree for all scheme

<http://www.treeforall.org.uk/getdigging/ournativetrees/>

Woodland Trust resource on British trees

<http://www.british-trees.com/>

The Field Studies Council is an environmental education charity, which runs courses

www.field-studies-council.org

Introduction to Stoney Clouds NR, Sandiacre

<http://gdd.org.uk/environment/stonycloud.html>

Introduction to hedgerow trees and shrubs in Sussex

http://sxbrc.org.uk/projects/hedgerows/hedgerow_tree_book.pdf

Identifying wildlife on a computer or mobile

www.iSpot.org.uk/keys which is part of www.OPALexplorenature.org

Links to 2 documents about ancient woodlands:

www.ptes.org/files/1738_ne_ancient_woodl...fcal_authorities.pdf

www.britishwildlife.com/classic_articles...cient%20woodland.pdf