

Medway U3A Privacy Policy

Medway U3A treats your privacy rights seriously. This privacy policy sets out how we will deal with your personal information.

What personal information do we collect?

When you express an interest in becoming a member of Medway U3A you will be asked to provide certain information. This includes:

- Your name
- Home address
- Email address
- Telephone numbers
- Your subscription preferences
- Gift aid entitlement

How do we collect this personal information?

All the information collected is obtained directly from you. This is usually at the point of your initial registration. The information will be collected via membership/ contact forms or in person. The lawful basis for collecting and storing your information is due to the legitimate interest that Medway U3A has in communicating with you as a member of Medway U3A. In order to inform you about the groups, activities and events that you can access as a member we need to store and process a certain amount of personal data.

How do we use your personal information?

We use your personal information:

- To provide activities and services to you
- For administration, planning and management of Medway U3A
- To communicate with you about your group activities
- To monitor, develop and improve the provision of Medway U3A activity
- For delivery of the Trust publication – Third Age Matters

We will send you messages by email, post, other digital methods and telephone to advise you of U3A activities.

With whom do we share your personal information?

We may disclose information about you, including your personal information

- Internally - to committee members and group organisers – as required to facilitate your participation in our U3A activities;
- Externally – for products or services such as direct mailing for the Trust magazine – Third Age Matters. The magazine is distributed by a third party processor and your information is shared with the distribution company via a secure online portal. Should you not wish to receive the magazine please contact the Membership Secretary.
- If we have a statutory duty to disclose it for legal and/or regulatory reasons we will seek to obtain your consent. Information would be shared without consent where there were serious safety concerns and it was felt to be in your or the U3As best interests to disclose information.

How long do we keep your personal information?

We need to keep your information so that we can provide our services to you. In most instances information about your membership will be stored whilst you remain a member and for no longer than 12 months afterwards. The exceptions to this are instances where there may be financial, legal or insurance circumstances that require information to be held for longer whilst the issues are investigated or resolved. Where this is the case, members will be informed as to how long the information will be held for and when it is deleted.

How your information can be updated or corrected?

To ensure the information we hold is accurate and up to date, members need to inform the U3A as to any changes to their personal information. You can do this by contacting the membership secretary through the website. On an annual basis you will have the opportunity to update your information via the membership renewal process. Should you wish to view the information that the U3A holds on you, you can make this request by contacting the membership secretary – as detailed above. There may be certain circumstances where we are not able to comply with this request. This would include where the information may contain references to other individuals or for legal, investigative or security reasons. Otherwise we will usually respond within one month of the request being made.

How do we store your personal information?

Medway U3A has in place a range of security safeguards to protect your personal information against loss or theft, as well as unauthorised access, disclosure, copying, use or modification. Security measures include the use of a password controlled management database system, which is accessed by Committee Members and Group Organisers – as appropriate.

Availability and changes to this policy

This policy is available on Medway U3A's website. This policy may change from time to time. Members will be informed via the newsletter and the monthly meetings when any material changes are made to Medway U3A's policies and procedures.
