

Topics that have been discussed:

1. Healthcare and social care policies
2. The effect of immigration policies
3. Should your vote always count?
4. The role and control of the media
5. Pollution and the environment
6. Aging and the elderly
7. Welfare benefits system - it is fit for purpose?
8. Should we increase childcare fees or increase parents' ability to stay at home?
9. Are women equal yet?
10. What is privilege?
11. Should 16yr olds be allowed the vote?
12. Is surveillance by agencies of the state and/or private entities an aid to the security and safety of the populace, or an infringement of civil liberty?
13. Why aren't UK politics as polarised as the Americans? Are we just too British?
14. Should people take personal responsibility for their own health or should they be "nudged" in to making healthier choices?
15. How does health policy impact on society?
16. Should the provision of adult social care be a personal responsibility?
17. Should we become the United States of Great Britain? Is that preferable to independence for Scotland?
18. What is climate change and its causes, "are governments globally doing enough to address the causes"?
19. Can we afford to fight climate change?
20. What is climate change and its causes, "are governments globally doing enough to address the causes"?
21. Can we afford to fight climate change?
22. Does banning traffic from cities and towns just transfer pollution to the suburbs?
23. Will the commonwealth survive and in what form?
24. Will the UK survive and in what form?
25. Can the NHS be fixed or should we give up and start again?
26. Is there a role for a public service broadcaster and, if so, how should it be funded?
27. NATO is it fit for purpose?
28. Cost of living the effect globalisation?
29. Levelling up what is it and can it be achieved?