Day 1 - Sunday

We cross the Severn into Wales and visit the great Norman castle at Chepstow, built on a spur of rock overlooking the River Wye, in this historic fortress town.

Day 2 - Monday

Today we have a lovely journey on an all-weather observation carriage behind a vintage steam locomotive on the scenic Brecon Mountain Railway which takes us into the Brecon Beacons National Park with superb views. In the afternoon we have a cruise from Cardiff on the River Taff.

Day 3 - Tuesday

We head for Abergavenny, beautifully set in a bowl surrounded by mountains, and today is market day. Later we drive through stunning vistas to visit the Royal Welsh Regiment Museum in Brecon, with artefacts from around the world. Wonderful views as we travel over the Beacons back to Cardiff.

Day 4 - Wednesday

The Gower Peninsula beckons today, and we have a guided tour of this beautiful area on Swansea Bay.

Day 5 - Thursday

We visit St Fagans National Museum of History which showcases Welsh historical buildings re-located from across Wales including a farm, tannery, mills and a chapel. Traditional crafts and activities bring St Fagans alive in workshops where craftsmen demonstrate their traditional skills. We spend late afternoon visiting Cardiff Bay.

Day 6 - Friday

Heading for home we call at Tetbury for a lunchtime stop, a beautiful Cotswold town, now home to King Charles.
