ITINERARY:

DAY: 1, Thursday, 18th July.

We leave Newbury at 8.15am, with a ¾ hour comfort stop en-route to RHS BRIDGEWATER. Expected arrival time is 12.45pm, in time to enjoy a lunch here and admire their gardens. The Holiday Inn at Runcorn is our base for the next 3 nights, arriving here at about 4.30pm.

DAY: 2, Friday, 19th July.

RHS TATTON PARK FLOWER SHOW all day.

DAY: 3, Saturday, 20th July.

Visits to NT DUNHAM MASSEY, Altrincham – “A garden for all seasons and a house filled with treasures and stories!” in the morning and enjoy lunch here.

On to NT STYAL COTTON MILL, near Manchester, built in 1784 and a village for the workers. Don't forget your National Trust Cards! Non-NT members will be charged an entry fee.

DAY: 4, Sunday, 21st July.

We bid farewell to our hotel at 9am and head for BARNSDALE GARDENS in Rutland, where we will stay before departing for home at 4.15pm. The gardens were created by Geoff Hamilton for Gardener's World. It houses Britain's largest collection of individually designed gardens.

There will be a comfort stop before and after visiting Barnsdale, en-route for home.

We hope to arrive back in Newbury between 7 and 8pm.
