

Members' Code of Conduct

The members Code of Conduct specifies the standard of behaviour expected of all members of our u3a.

- Members are expected to conduct themselves within the u3a movement's "guiding principles." They are expected also to treat each other with dignity, respect, and courtesy at all times.
- Members are expected to know, follow, and promote the principles of the u3a movement at every opportunity.
- Members are always to act in the best interests of u3a and the movement; strive to uphold its reputation and never do anything which could bring u3a or the movement into disrepute or expose it to undue risk.
- Members are expected to use u3a's resources responsibly and only to further its stated charitable objects and purposes.
- Members are expected to reflect the current organisational policy of u3a regardless of whether it conflicts with their personal views.
- Members are expected to abide by u3a's procedures and practices.

(Source Third Age Trust Guidelines)

April 2023