1 CHAIRMAN'S REPORT

Tim Young reported that the year had started well in 2019 with good attendance at the various activities and the formation of two new groups. However, with the onset of Covid-19, restrictions had meant all face-to-face activities had to cease. There was a brief period when some groups were able to meet outdoors, but new restrictions then made this impossible. The committee were looking to see what could be done to provide interest and encourage new members.
