

Northumbria Region u3a
in association with Northumbria Region u3a Events Team

Exhibition Tours of 'Turner: Art, Industry and Nostalgia'

Don't miss out on this rare exhibition!

Join u3a members at the Laing to step inside the works of Turner's masterpiece, 'The Fighting Temeraire' and some of his paintings of the North-East. In addition, explore some of the works of other artists who have depicted the North East's industrial heritage.

Venue: Laing Art Gallery, Newcastle upon Tyne

Tours: Wednesday 29th May at 10.30 and 12.30

Prior to each tour, there will be a 35 mins'

Powerpoint presentation in the function room.

This is followed by an accompanied tour of the exhibition.

Each tour lasts approx. 50mins.

u3a members will be there to show you the location of the function room.

Tickets: to purchase a ticket pay by B.A.C.S by May 10th

Account name: University of the Third Age, Northumbria Region u3a

Sort code: 20-83-69

Account number: 90916382

Reference: either Tour 10.30 or Tour 12.30 depending on which tour you want to join.

Max of 14 members per tour

Image: River Tyne
'Keelmen Heaving in Coals by Moonlight' 1835
wikiart.org
public domain

Tickets

Concessions £4

Please pay by

May 10th

on first come basis.

If more members are interested then a further tour will be arranged for a later date.