

Further information

Alan Tumber is a retired head teacher with over 35 years experience in primary education. He has been head of two Birmingham primary schools and has performed in folk clubs and venues around the city for many years.

Rhyme Nor Reason 'tis the Season is a multi-media extravaganza which includes Christmas songs, poetry, cartoons, live music and more. There's comedy and tradition side by side. You might say 'It's not just any talk – it's an M&S talk!!'

