

Chairman's Remarks

JUNE 2022 NEWSLETTER - CHAIR'S PIECE AND GROUP NOTICE

Greetings Everybody!

I hope you all had a wonderful Jubilee Weekend, having celebrations with friends and family and, of course, lots of delicious food and a celebratory drink or three! The events in London seemed to bring everybody together with a sense of freedom after the restrictions of the last two years.

We also had the Riviera Air Show, well, at least for one day, shame about the weather on Sunday, but that is Britain for you. We at least got to see The Red Arrows on Saturday.

Now we can all look forward to the summer and hope the weather improves for us all.

I look forward to seeing you on Tuesday.

CHANGE OF POLICY AT SPEAKERS' MEETINGS

Your committee, after a lot of thought, and bearing in mind the financial situation of our group, have decided that from MAY 2022, there will still be a 'door fee' of £2.00, BUT, each member will then have to buy their own drinks, teas/coffees or from the bar.

AUGUST MEETING

Due to holiday commitments there will be NO meeting in August

SPEAKERS COMING..

PHILIP BADCOTT, is expected to speak, at the June meeting, on 'Sir Walter Raleigh, favourite Devonian of Elizabeth 1st.

Ken Faulkner will be speaking on 'Gun Powder Girls and the Great War' at the July meeting.

THEATRE TRIP.

We have secured some seats at the Babbacombe Theatre for their afternoon summer show on WEDNESDAY 17th AUGUST at 14.30. Again they have given us a '2 4 1' offer, £12.00 per seat So names on the sheet on the table, and money no later than our August meeting..

PHOTOGRAPHY GROUP

David Ayres is hoping to form a photography group again, starting later in the year, (after his move to a new home), if you are interested please contact David.
