

CHAIR'S LETTER - APRIL 2023

Happy Easter
Everyone!

I feel that this year, we are finally finding our feet after Covid. From last year, when we were still rather hesitant, we are now venturing out into the sunshine like butterflies, so let us hope the sunny weather is here to stay. We live in such a beautiful place, with our lovely parks, the beach and countryside, all free too! Just the thing when life gets tough. Even the beach huts are back.

Our meeting on Tuesday will be our AGM. We will vote in the new Committee and I would like to give a big thank you to Rodger Smith and his wife Janette and Brenda Scaysbrook (who are standing down from their roles) who have been an enormous help to me these last two years. Also to all of you who have supported over the past years. Without our members we wouldn't have a U3A.

I wish you all a happy holiday and see you all in May.

Carole Giffen
