

u3a Perth News Round-up

29 November 2023

1. Next Open Meeting
2. u3a Diaries
3. Unit 7 improvements
4. Membership

1. Our next Open Meeting will be on Monday 15 January. The talk is entitled The Perth murder of 1944, given by Mark Bridgeman. As usual, it will take place at St Matthew's Church on Tay Street, and coffees etc will be available from 10am with the talk commencing at 10.30am. These meetings are open to all, so feel free to bring along any friends and family who might be interested.
2. There are a small number of u3a diaries left, but no more open meetings this year at which to buy them. Therefore, if you would like one, please let David Thistlethwaite know. Email: Thistled@btinternet.com
3. Those who use Unit 7 may have noticed that we have a new, and much neater, ceiling panel. It should also be more effective at blocking light from the skylight, thus helping those who use the projector or show films. In addition, new blinds are on order which should be more effective than the current blinds. Many thanks to Dave Smith and Peter Trant for their ongoing work in this respect. Meanwhile, the intermittent leak in Unit7 has been reported to building management, and work in is train to make the Perth u3a Anniversary Tapestry ready for display in the room.
4. Membership of Perth u3a now stands at 470, 90 of whom are new members. This puts us at 20 members more than the target set for this year – hooray!