

U3A Art Appreciation Group – Forthcoming Event

Our next visit is on Tuesday 26th November 2019

The visit and guided tour will be to

Paula Rego: Obedience and Defiance

Tuesday, 26th November 2019, at 12 noon.

@ the Scottish National Gallery of Modern Art 2

Date and time of guided tour: Tuesday 26th November at 12 noon – lasts one hour

Place of guided tour: SNG Modern 2, Belford Road, Edinburgh

Costs: Entry will be approx £4.25 [50% of concession ticket for over 60s for tours] or free to friends of National Galleries of Scotland. Guide fee is £5 per person

Numbers for this visit: 10 minimum / 15 maximum

For more information about the exhibition, see here.

From the website:

“An unmissable, lifetime-spanning survey”

The Guardian

Paula Rego: Obedience and Defiance is an ambitious retrospective of the Portuguese artist's work that brings politics to the fore. Spanning Rego's career from the 1950s through to 2012, the works in this exhibition address António de Oliveira Salazar's fascist regime, the 1997 referendum on legalising abortion in Portugal, the invasion of Iraq in 2003 by the United States and its allies and, from 2009, female genital mutilation – all of which resonate strongly with contemporary feminist and political issues.

Curated by independent curator Catherine Lampert and organised by MK Gallery (Milton Keynes), the exhibition includes over 60 loans.

For more information about our visits please email the Art Appreciation group.

CURRENTLY THIS VISIT IS ONLY OPEN TO MEMBERS OF THE ART APPRECIATION GROUP**