

January 16th 2023. Walk to Lochan Oisinneach Mor.

9 people attended....lovely sunny, yet cold, day with fresh snow on the hills.

We started from Milton Farm about 0915above Ballinluig....walked NW from there to the lochan and had coffee.

Then did a circuit round the top of the small companion loch and headed S through an open forest of young pines...Stopping for lunch at `Sarah`s Bothy.

The paths were frozen with icy patches throughout. Very good views all day. We returned to the cars about 3.30. Total distance 11 miles, with little gain in height.

Coffee stop on way home in Dunkeld. (Palmerstons)` good food and quick service A very enjoyable day.

Distance	17.8 km ↔
Time spent moving	4:22 h ⌚
Ascent	335 m ▲
Descent	352 m ▼
Avg. speed (throughout time spent moving)	4.1 km/h ⌚
Date	January 16, 2023 09:13 AM 📅

📈 View statistics

Dav

x

STATISTICS

Elevation profile

Highest point	459 m
Lowest point	139 m
Total distance	17.8 km
Track distance	17.8 km
Flat section	5.6 km
Uphill section	6.3 km
Downhill section	5.9 km

A brisk walk up the estate road from Tulliemet

On to the moorland where we are confronted by a pack of angry fierce sheep.

Ice dominated the track

Arriving at Lochan Oisinnich Mor and time for coffee

After an hour wait we decided that perhaps the bus had been cancelled.

Making our way westwards into the afternoon sun

Down the track to Tulliemet