

Playlist of Music to Share at U3A music on 15 12 14

In the order in which the pieces were played:

| Name of member | Piece played | Comment |
|-------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Alan Byers | Funeral March from Handel's dramatic Oratorio "Saul" | Youtube (period instruments) |
| Maureen Grossman | Horse Dressage (dance) from the British 2012 gold medal winner Charlotte Jardin | Youtube |
| David Grossman | Vivaldi's Gloria, Trevor Pinnock, English Consort | Youtube (period instruments) |
| Colin Berkovitch | Pablo Sarasate: Zigeunerweisen, op 20, Polish National Symphony orchestra | CD. Violin soloist Marat Bisengaliev |
| Lyn Clayden | Piano solo – Grieg's Wedding Day | CD. Soloist Hakon Austbo |
| Ruth Mackler and Gary Harding | The Finale of Mozart's Don Giovanni, Metropolitan Opera House | USB stick. Conducted by Max Rudolf |
| Kay Bagon | Placido Domingo singing Lensky's Aria from Tchaikovsky's Eugenin Onegin | Youtube |
| Carmel Byers | Bernstein Chichester Psalms – New York Phil and the Camerata singers | LP 33 rpm. The 1 st 7 mins – Psalm 108 :2; Ps 100; and Ps 23 |
| David Bagon | La Juive, Halevy; Vienna 2003 | Youtube. Bass solo Neil Schicoff at 19 minutes |
| Tony Clayden | Arthur Sullivan's overture to act IV of the "the Tempest" | CD. Arthur Sullivan (1842-1900) longed to be taken more seriously as a composer! |

Thus, 11 out of the 14 of us present played 'Music we want to share' for all of us to listen to and enjoy and discuss. Many thanks to all who came and made the occasion such a success.

Topics for the future include:

- Gary Harding – Mozart operas
- Tony Clayden – Music Prodigies (19 1 15); and Spanish music
- Carmel Byers – Women in music
- Brian Frankland - Delius