

As part of tracing my family tree I travelled to Cambrai Military Cemetery France to visit the grave of my uncle who died of wounds aged 19 yrs. on 15th Oct. 1918.

I also visited Essex Farm Cemetery to see the dugouts used as dressing stations. It was there that
Lt. Col John McCrae wrote the poem "In Flanders Fields"

I wrote the poem on my journey home.

Pat Musk.