

Saltburn Valley Gardens with some fascinating Lantern installations:
Continued from page 11

INAUGURAL NATIONAL U3A AT THE UNIVERSITY OF YORK 18-20 JULY 2024

This year, the first ever u3a Festival is taking place at the University of York from 18 to 20 July. There will be a wide range of activities on offer, from sport to music and workshops. The detailed programme should be available shortly. The costs will be:

Day 1, Thursday 18 July - £25 including a buffet supper

Day 2, Friday 19 July - £10 for the full day

Day 3, Saturday 20 July - £5 for a half day

Full festival, to include all 3 days and buffet supper on Day 1 - £35

As this event is taking place not too far from us, we thought some of our members may be interested in attending, either for one day or finding accommodation in York to attend for the whole festival. (Unfortunately, accommodation at York University is now fully booked).

It will be an ideal opportunity to embrace new interests and meet fellow u3a members from across the country. If you are interested in attending, visit:

u3a.org.uk/events/festival-2024

where you will be able to find the detailed programme as soon as it is available and also information on how to book.

Tricia Salt

March Update – Ukulele Group

Our thanks to the talented Ukulele Group who brightened up a cold 1st March morning with lively renditions of many well-known songs which had the audience singing and clapping along. I gather that they have recently acquired some new equipment including a very impressive-looking mixing desk and this can only add to their always very professional and entertaining performance.

Tricia Salt