THE CRITERION THEATRE at BLUETOWN

Remembrance Day Celebration

This outing is to visit a hidden gem in Bluetown, Sheerness where a community cinema, music hall and museum can be found.

We have secured a limited number of tickets for the Remembrance Day event which will be a trip down memory lane with songs from the 1940's by the "Swinging Sweethearts", the UK's No1 wartime duo. There will be an included delicious cream tea served in the interval.

Before the show there will be free time to visit the museum plus the tea room / bar will be open for pre-show drinks (drinks not included in the price)

Price £35pp

Please Note : Refunds will not normally be available for payments made to Coach Companies or third party venues, etc.
All outings are for Saxon Shore U3A members only.
