The Psychology of False Memory

Professor Christopher French, University of London

Our sense of identity, or who we are, is bound up with our autobiographical memories. Research is increasing our understanding of the development, functions and limitations of human memory across the lifespan.

Discussion Groups

An opportunity for members to discuss and share experiences in managing U3As and providing a range of learning activities

Welcome to Beacon

Sally Ingledew, Lead Coordinator for Beacon in the 12 UK Regions, will introduce Beacon, a system to help U3As manage their membership, groups and finance.

Nick Hammond, Warsash U3A, will give a practical demonstration of using Beacon in U3As

Free, including buffet lunch – costs paid by Regional Support Budget.

Book by May 7th
