Those giving and those requiring a lift please be at The Red Lion Car Park East Bergholt by 9.45 am

West Stow is the site of an early Anglo-Saxon Village, occupied from AD 420-650 and is one of England's great archaeological sites. The reconstructions of Anglo Saxon buildings now consists of eight structures surrounded by 125 acres of unspoilt countryside. It has indoor galleries, a museum and a café for hot snacks. Car-park £3. Leave at 1.45pm for Fullers Mill Fullers Mill is an enchanting and tranquil seven-acre creation on the banks of the River Lark; the RHS Partner Garden of the Year in the Midlands and East of England. In 2013 the garden was gifted to the Charity, Perennial. Refreshments available. No picnicking in the gardens.
