

ARCTIC CHARTS

FROM BOB HEADLAND'S UNVEILING THE ARCTIC LECTURE

Years when geographical locations first, reasonably accurately, appeared on charts

R. K. Headland, Scott Polar Research Institute, 1 VII 2022

|   |  |
|---|--|
| 871 Iceland                        | 1873 Franz Josef Land               |
| 877 southern Greenland             | 1882 northern three Ostrova Delonga |
| 1596 Bjørnøya and western Svalbard | 1882 northern Ostrov Vrangelya      |
| 1598 Novaya Zemlya                 | 1897 central Arctic Ocean           |
| 1614 Jan Mayen                     | 1898 Ostrov Viktoria                |
| 1721 Bering Strait                 | 1902 Sverdrup Archipelago           |
| 1742 Mys Chelyuskin                | 1903 Canadian Arctic Archipelago    |
| 1745 Eurasian Coast                | 1912 northern Greenland coast       |
| 1768 Matochkin Shar                | 1913 southern two Ostrova Delonga   |
| 1773 Novosibirskiy Ostrova         | 1913 western Severnaya Zemlya       |
| 1819 Lancaster Sound               | 1930 Ostrov Vize                    |
| 1828 Point Barrow                  | 1932 complete Severnaya Zemlya      |
| 1824 southern Ostrov Vrangelya     | 1935 Ostrov Ushakova                |
| 1849 Herald Island                 | 1947 Prince Charles Island          |
| 1852 Bellot Strait                 | 1993 Tobias Island                  |