

David Muntzer Talks - 2.00 pm Mondays

Geology and History of the Peruvian Andes

October 14th & 28th , November 11th & 25th
& December 9th 2019

Based on research and the speaker's travels, these talks describe the amazing geology, history and wildlife of the Andes in Peru and Bolivia, including the Inca Trail.

The final talk before Christmas will describe a new tour of Britain by rail, featuring towns, history, our contrasting countryside and weather.

Admission : £2.00
