May 2023 Newsletter

Thank you to all those who attended the Annual General Meeting. We had a robust meeting, and it was good to see we had more nominations than positions for the committee. Good luck to all those who are taking up roles on the committee for the next twelve months. The contact details of the committee are enclosed with the newsletter.

The website is up to date so please visit the site and see notices, events and group details. You can also send emails to group leaders and committee from the website. (u3asites.org.uk/sutton-in-ashfield)
