

Thame and District u3a Member Code of Conduct

Purpose

The member code of conduct clarifies the standard of behaviour expected from each u3a member.

SCOPE

Relevant to all members of Thame and District u3a.

MEMBER CODE OF CONDUCT

- Members are expected to know, follow and promote the principles of the u3a Movement at every opportunity.
- Members must always act in the best interests of Thame and District u3a and the u3a Movement, strive to uphold its reputation and never do anything which could bring their own, another u3a or the u3a Movement into disrepute or expose it to undue risk.
- Members are expected to use Thame and District u3a's resources responsibly and only to further its stated charitable objects and purposes.
- Members are expected to reflect the current organisational policy of Thame and District u3a, regardless of whether it conflicts with their personal views.
- Members are expected to abide by Thame and District u3a's procedures and practices.
- Members are expected to treat each other with dignity and respect at all times.
- Members must provide emergency contact details before joining any group activity or organised trip.
- Members with mobility or medical issues should make sure they have a designated friend or buddy with them at any u3a meeting or on any trip to assist them if required.
