Weymouth lies on a wide sweep of golden sands and combines the pleasures of a traditional seaside resort and a colourful harbour, live with working boats. Fine Georgian terraces line the level promenade and the pretty parks/gardens are the perfect place to while-away a leisurely afternoon.

Monday: Departing from local collection points we make our way towards Wokingham for a comfort stop at the nearby Wyevale Garden Centre, before heading towards Romsey for an included visit to Mottisfont. A historical priory, garden and country estate managed by the National Trust. Afterwards we re-join the coach and complete our journey at the Royal Hotel in Weymouth in time for dinner.

Tuesday: A free day at leisure in Weymouth.

Wednesday: After breakfast, we head towards Norden for an included journey on the Swanage Steam Railway. The first stop is Corfe Castle station, where you may wish to depart the train and visit the model village (Please note an admission fee will apply) We then journey onwards towards Swanage Station, perfectly located in centre of town with the main high street running down to the beach.

Thursday: This morning we visit the historic market town of Dorchester, we continue onwards to the market town of Bridport for some free time before returning back to Weymouth via the coastal road.

Friday: Today we say our fond farewells to Weymouth before departing for home, with comfort stops and an included visit to Kingston Lacy en-route.

The Royal Hotel is located in a prime position on the seafront and within walking distance of Weymouth Marina and harbour.

All bedrooms are en-suite with tea/coffee making facilities, television and hairdryer.
