Use of Information

Please note that, to facilitate your membership, The Three Brethren u3a uses and shares your data as follows, under the lawful basis of legitimate interest defined in the UK GDPR and the Data Protection Act 2018:

- to share with the suppliers of our external membership management system
- to allow communication between group facilitators and their group members
- for administration, planning and management of The Three Brethren u3a
- to send your name and address to the printers of u3a Matters if you have opted to receive it (see selection box above) so they can send the magazine directly to you by post.
- to communicate information likely to be of interest to members of The Three Brethren u3a, e.g.:
 - news about The Three Brethren u3a
 - notices about meetings and events
 - information from the Third Age Trust and u3a Scotland.

The minimum data required to enable your membership is your name, postal address, and phone number.

Your details will be forwarded to the facilitator (the group leader) of each group you wish to join. They will contact you with relevant group information. You have the right to request that your information be removed from our membership database at any time by contacting the Administrator at t3bbeacon@gmail.com.

If you would like to create a new Interest Group, besides those listed on the website, please contact the Groups Coordinator, as shown on the Contacts page.
