

SOME LIGHT READING

Over the years Tring U3A members and local historians Wendy Austin and Ian Petticrew have written a number of papers on different aspects of the history of Tring, which they have published on the Internet.

Should you be running out of light reading during the Covid-19 lockdown, you might find some interest in such Tring-related topics as The Bank of Tring, The Tring Flour Mill, The Tring Silk Mill, Tring's Cinemas (we had four over the years), The Canal and the Railway – Wendy's latest contribution is The Hamlet of Dunsley.
