

SHEET MUSIC

There is no blanket licence available for multiple copying of sheet music; this is always illegal unless it is no longer in copyright. If you would like help and advice on obtaining copyright clearance you can look at Frequently Asked Questions on The Music Publishers' Association website (www.mpaonline.org.uk) or contact them on 0207 580 0126. There is also some free sheet music available on the internet at choral public domain (www.cpdl.org.uk) and this will give you links to other useful sites.

RECORDED MUSIC

The PPL licence supplied by the Trust gives U3As permission to play recorded music in public as part of their interest/activity groups.

PERFORMANCE – PRS LICENCE

This covers the use of the actual lyrics and composed music in any public performance of music. It is the sole responsibility of the proprietor/manager of the premises you are using to have a licence arranged.
