

History group Meeting Tuesday 19th March, 2019

Barbara introduced Judy Williams who appeared in period dress as Bess of Hardwick. 'Bess' began by giving a short resume of her' life. Following this dramatic interpretation of Bess' life, Judy, then gave the members a glimpse of the inside of Hardwick Hall using the projector and screen. The architecture and furnishing of the house are stunning. With the conclusion of this tour the presentation ended. Barbara thanked Judy for what had been a remarkable talk which was greatly appreciated by all present who showed that appreciation in a long and well deserve round of applause.
