Landscape Legacy - Moses Cook

An illustrated talk focussing on Moses Cook, the inspirational gardener to the First Earl of Essex in 17C.

He and the Earl, Arthur Capel, made the gardens famous. Moses Cook went on to become one of the four most eminent gardeners in the 17th Century.

Date: Saturday 20th July 2019.

Talk: 2-3pm.

Light refreshments afterwards.

Booking required and £3 per person paid cash on the day.

Booking: E-mail cassiobury@watford.gov.uk to book a place.
