

GENEALOGY (Family History) October 2020

Series of Research Guidance Notes available (in PDF format) to download

1. GETTING STARTED
2. The importance of establishing proof
3. Genetic Genealogy: DNA Testing
 - 3a. The Diaspora Effect
4. Parish Records Research Guide
5. Understanding THE PARISH REGISTER
6. Tracing your ancestors before Parish Records 1538
 - 6a. Understanding Manorial Records
 - 6b. Some tips on reading Manorial documents
7. The National Archives – ‘Archives for Everyone 2019-23’
8. Researching the Local Archives
9. FamilySearch
 - 9a. Finding free records on FamilySearch
10. Wills, Admons, Probate and Bon vacantia
11. Electoral Registers
12. The Best Websites for Genealogy Research
13. Learn and Research Family History with Online Tutorials
14. Social History and Family History
15. First World War Facts
16. Tracing your Scottish Family History
 - 16a. Scots-Irish Genealogy
17. The 10 Most Common Research Blocks aka. ‘Brick walls’
 - 17a. Brick Wall (research blocks) advice
 - 17b. Guardianship (adoption) and fostering
 - 17c. The Calendar Act of 1750
18. “Who are the Lost Generation”
19. The Census Act 1800
20. The History of Census in Ireland
21. Researching an ancestor you believe may be Huguenot
22. Ancient English Marriage License Records
23. ‘Writing your Family History TIMELINE’
 - 23a. ‘Writing your Family History’ Update
24. Newspapers Research
25. The 1939 National Register
26. Surname Mapping
 - 26a. Taxation records for surnames
27. Early 20th century family and social history research
28. Maps to explore for the location of your family history

Available from the National U3A Genealogy Subject Adviser: Stephen Dyer

stevedyer2009@live.co.uk

