Who Are We? • What Do We Do?

West Cheshire Rural u3a is a small, friendly group formed in April 2010 with members drawn from many of the villages in rural West Cheshire, such as Christleton, Farndon, Huxley, Huntington, Malpas, Tattenhall, Tilston and Waverton.

We are a group of individuals of varied backgrounds and interests who are no longer in full-time employment. This means we have some leisure time that we wish to enjoy in the company of others, pursuing hobbies or interests or engaging in activities that are quite new to us.

What do we do?

We have many Interest Groups, the backbone of any u3a. They cover a wide variety of subjects and we are always open to ideas for new groups.

All are organised from within the membership.

We would love you to join us!

We are part of a UK- based network of over 1000 u3as led by the Third Age Trust.

Our Annual Membership fee gives access to all our activities.

Our current Interest Groups include:

- ✓ Art Appreciation
- ✓ Dining
- ✓ Discussion
- ✓ Drawing
- ✓ Poetry
- ✓ Historic Places & Gardens
- ✓ Music Appreciation
- ✓ Cryptic Crosswords
- ✓ Reading
- ✓ Ukulele
- ✓ Mah-jong
- ✓ Walking

Where do we meet?

Our general meetings are held at the
Barbour Institute, High St, Tattenhall CH3 9PX.

We meet on the third Thursday afternoon of each month.

A monthly meeting usually involves a speaker with talks on a wide range of subjects. It is at these meetings we meet old friends and make new ones in a relaxed atmosphere.

Please see overleaf for our contact details.
