55 members and 7 potential new members joined us for the talk on the Huxley Hoard in November. What a great audience, one of the largest we have had for a speaker.

We do not have a monthly meeting in December.

In January our speaker will be Tom Jones, a Chester Tour Guide who will give us a talk about Chester Zoo. We have been hoping to get a talk about the Zoo for some time so we are looking forward to this one.

In February we will have the talk by English Heritage about the Roundhouse at Beeston Castle. This is the talk that was cancelled earlier this year after a mix-up over timings.

Website Update

As you may be aware the West Cheshire Rural u3a website has been off line this month.

This is a message from the u3a Trust:

Due to circumstances beyond our control, SiteBuilder websites – used by several our u3as – are down due to technical difficulties with the organisation that hosts the websites. The Third Age Trust (the SiteBuilder volunteers and senior staff) are working very hard to help resolve this. We are in touch regularly with the u3as committees affected and are working towards resolution. If members have any questions, please speak with your u3a committee.

Latest Update- the plan is that a version of the website will be available later this week. We will need to add photos back, and make a few updates. Please bear with us.

The national u3a website and Beacon are unaffected as they are on different systems.

WCRu3a does have a Facebook page. If group leaders have information that they would like to add there in the interim, please contact me using the general email address below.

On behalf of our regional Chair, Mary Waters, and the members of the NW committee, I would like to offer an invitation to an afternoon of 'Festive Moments' on Zoom on Wednesday December 14th at 4pm. Please try to circulate this to your groups.

There will be an opportunity to sing some seasonal songs, hear some light-hearted readings and take part in a quiz.

As the NW website is still down you can use this link direct to the registration form https://forms.gle/UxdxorbUgk7NGCoh6

If you have any problems or queries please contact me on gillruss71 @gmail.com.

Best wishes,

Gill Russell

Mah-jong for Beginners caters for people new to the game who haven't played before. The group isn't suitable for anyone who already has playing experience or is looking to return to the game and needs to refresh their knowledge.

However, if there is enough interest from more experienced players, a second Mahjong group could easily be set up.

Music Appreciation Group

The Group now has 12 Members, having restarted last December after the Covid hiatus. We meet every month in the Community Room at St Albans Church, Tattenhall.

We all have varying musical interests and our meetings are relaxed and, hopefully, allow members the opportunity to adequately share their musical experiences and knowledge. We managed to work our way through the alphabet earlier in the year and over several sessions, finding different types of music, composers, and musicians to cover all 26 letters. Last month, we shared recollections of our early musical experiences, or when we discovered music 'new' to us in later life. It was great fun and full of surprises. Our offerings are a very eclectic mix across all types of music.

December's session will be our first anniversary and we will look at 'seasonal' music to suit the time of year. Some pretty obvious examples will likely appear on the day. Please contact David Thomson if you would like to know more about the Group.

Ukulele Group

It was good to see Kim back playing with the group this month and Ken & Isabel back from holidays. We have a new song "Islands in the Stream" written by the Bee Gees and originally sung by Dolly Parton and Kenny Rogers. You may also remember the version by Rob Brydon and Ruth Jones in Gavin and Stacy.

Sunday Lunch Group

In November the group went for lunch at the Alvanley Arms at Cotebrook. A really good lunch was made all the better as we were able to take advantage of a pre-December 25% off offer. Thank you, Colin for organising this meal.

Our December lunch will be at the Grosvenor at Pulford. The carvery was excellent last time we went so hopefully it will live up to expectations.

Poetry Group

This month's theme at the poetry group was Adventure. It sparked a variety of poems and reminiscences, many about our childhood, when we are probably more adventurous. There were poems about how an adventure can change us and how

November Short Walk

The short walk in November was led by Catherine McIntosh. The 4-mile walked started at the Memorial Hall car park in Farndon. We enjoyed unseasonably warm weather for November and were rewarded with views towards Beeston Castle and the Sandstone Ridge as we left Farndon and towards the Welsh hills on the return route.

area, its worth checking the local pub website.

November Long Walk 24 November 2022

The walk on 24th November, led by David and Lynda Bish, started from Loggerheads Country Park near Mold with 9 walkers, in dry, but cool weather. A recce the previous week had been completed in very wet conditions with heavy rain and the river Alyn in flood, looking very angry!

We walked along the Leete Path through the gorge towards Cilcain, passing disused lead mine shafts and crossing Devils Gorge Bridge.

Our route was taken from a book of Tea Shop Walks, but modified due to the wet conditions underfoot. When close to Cilcain, we took a path across fields towards Pentre and shortly after crossing the river Nant Gain, the heavens opened! 6 took shelter under a very sparse holly tree, with the remaining 3 of us seeking shelter against a high hedge! After a short stop, we braved the rain, which had subsided slightly, and continued on our way crossing a bridge back over the river Alyn and onto the Leete Path back towards Loggerheads, where, after an enjoyable 6.5-mile walk, we all enjoyed a hot bowl of homemade soup served with chunks of homemade brown bread in the Caffi Florence! All that remained was to drive home in rather damp clothes with the car heater on full, telling ourselves that it doesn't have to be a warm dry summers day to enjoy a walk. David Bish

Sue, Carolyn, and Marjorie were free to walk on Monday 31 October. Parking at Gresty's Waste the route followed the Sandstone Trail south into Primrose Wood, then winding their way through the trees, admiring the autumn colours, and spotting some handsome fungi. A road section above Tirley Garth with lovely views brought the group back to the Trail, and to the car park.

On the 7th the Monday walk was 3.5 miles from Handbridge to Westminster Park, Curzon Park, the Racecourse ,Watergate Street where we had coffee, Grosvenor Park, the Groves ,the Old Dee Bridge, along the river to and finally through Edgar's Field and back to the cars.

The mini walk on the 21st was from the Sandstone Pub at Brown Knowl. We walked up towards the

There were 6 of us in the group, walking part of the Sandstone Trail from Duckington National Trust carpark. The 3.5-mile walk was quite straightforward with a couple of uphill bits through the woodlands along the Zig Zag path, coming out on the heathland on the top of the hill.

We walked at a leisurely pace, taking 2 hours, and stopping at the viewpoints at The Kitty Stone and Maiden Castle, then returning down the steep steps from Maiden Castle. Again we were lucky with the weather. Wendy Broad

Carol, Kate, Jim, Jeanette, Chris, and Wendy walked part of the Sandstone trail from The Pheasant at Burwardsley for the second walk this month. The walk took just over 1 hour 30 minutes over a distance of about 5km. We started out on the lane towards Beeston and then took the Sandstone Trail path on the right up the steep hill, continuing along the track to the right, past the fields to the road.

We took the road to the left up to the Sandstone Trail and along to the gatehouse. From here we followed the Sandstone Trail to the top of Bulkeley Hill, returning across the field to Coppermine Lane and then following the track on the right all the way back to the pub, for some light bites and a drink. Despite the monsoon-like rain at times, we had some very interesting conversations and lovely chats.

The weather was very wet so these pictures are from the recce the previous day when the weather was so much better.

On the 8th November members of the Art Group enjoyed a very special visit to the Lady Lever Art Gallery in Port Sunlight for an "Exhibition of Pure Brilliance: The Boodles Story" which showcases the luxury jewellery brand's 225-year story. We were dazzled by the extraordinary jewellery created by this family firm which still has a flagship store in Liverpool today (as well as one in Chester).

The gallery is celebrating its centenary; Lord Leverhulme opened it in 1922 and named it after his wife Elizabeth who died in 1913. A video taken at the time of opening was of great interest. This was a very special day out and enjoyed by all who were able to attend.

Our next visit is on 6th December to The Tate Gallery Liverpool for the Turner Exhibition and afterwards lunch at Gusto's.
