In March our speaker is Brian Anderson with an illustrated talk about Yellowstone National Park. Brian, a Wirral based photographer, tutor, and lecturer wowed us last year with his amazing photography.

As Brian says "Photography is a 'powerful medium of expression and communication' and I use my images so children and adults can explore, experience, and discover the amazing places I have been to, and the inspiring people I have met"

February Meeting

We welcomed 57 members and 7 potential new members to our meeting in February. Gary Ashby from English Heritage gave a very interesting and informative talk about the roundhouse which English Heritage has built on the area below Beeston Castle. Several roundhouse sites were discovered in the area and Gary stressed the importance English Heritage placed on using materials which would have been available at the time. He emphasised the difficulties involved in fashioning bronze axes and adzes to fell trees and strip bark etc before splitting them using wooden wedges, and he explained the huge manpower and length of time involved in lifting the heavy poles into place after building the "A" frames. They had to experiment with the amounts of soil, types of animal dung and the straw to use for the wattle and daub walls - something which time has shown needs to be reassessed due to the crumbly nature of the local soil. The talk was enthusiastically received and there were many questions at the end. Beeston Castle may expect an influx of visitors in the future!

Have You Mislaid Some Money?

When tidying up after our monthly meeting on Thursday 17th November, 2022, a sum of money was found which I am sure does not belong in our u3a bank account. Could it be yours?

You may remember the November monthly meeting – Rob Philpott gave a talk about The Huxley Hoard and a number of members paid Marian for their Christmas lunches.

If you were at that meeting and had some cash on you which seems to have gone missing, please contact Linda Davenport via the Treasurer button on the Contact page of our website at https://u3asites.org.uk/west-cheshire/contact or speak to a committee member. Linda Davenport, Treasurer

Quiz Update The answers to the Homophone towns quiz will be on the website plus the new quiz Animal Books.

Restricted Parking at the Barbour

From Monday 6th March Bolesworth is carrying out maintenance at the Barbour Institute. For the duration of these works there will be scaffolding around the whole of the building which will reduce the available parking. Please can members attending groups or the monthly meeting, park in the car park at Barbour Square which is behind the main street, leaving available parking on Millfield (the area to the right of the building) for those less able to walk. Please be extra careful when entering and leaving the building.

It has been brought to our attention that emails from this system may not be reaching some members inboxes and are going in to their Spam or Junk folder. You can make sure this doesn't happen by adding the sender to your contacts, or if you don't want to do that, then please check your spam/junk folders for u3a emails.

Networking Event at Gifford Lea

The u3a was invited to a networking event at Gifford Lea last month. We have several current members from Gifford Lea. Dorothy Turpy and Anne Bayliss spent an enjoyable morning talking to the residents and showing what the u3a offers to members.

The current discussion group meets fortnightly in the Boys' Room in the Barbour Institute. It is currently some 14 strong which generally gives a group of around ten attending which is felt to be approaching the limit that allows everyone to have a say.

If you would be interested in joining a discussion group, perhaps we could start a second group.

Cinema Group

Pam Baggot has been group leader for the Home Cinema Group for some 9 years but has decided now is the time to hand over the baton. Do we have a member who would be willing to take on the role of group leader?.

Perhaps the group could work in an informal way where someone spots a film at the cinema that they want to go to see, selects a day and time (matinees often are less crowded) and the details are circulated to the group. If you want to go you can just arrange to meet with the organiser and watch the film together. I often have been to matinees on my own so would be interested. Please let Mike Woollard know if you would be interested in an informal cinema group.

Ukulele Group

Ken and Isabel are away this month so we are having to master the backing track and our new songs so that we will be note perfect for their return.

Sunday Lunch Group

The Sunday lunch group had a lovely meal this month at the Cock O' Barton. Brenda is organising the next meal which will be at The Inn at Huxley.

Historic Places and Gardens

This is a new group drawn from the membership of the Plants and Gardens and Historic Houses groups previously led by Jean Hancox and Jill Worthington. Marian Hagan and Jill O'Callaghan will become joint group leaders for this new group. Thank you, Marian, and Jill, for leading this group, we look forward to many visits over the next year. The first outing in February was to Lyme Park.

The theme for our poetry session in February was narrative, led by Gill. A usual we had a good mix of subjects. Narrative poems we found by nature tend to be much longer.

Here is a list of what we read:

Paul Revere's Ride - Henry Wadsworth Longfellow

Casey at the Bat – Ernest Lawrence Thayer

The Knitter - Jackie Kay

The Lady of Shalott - Alfred Tennyson

The Conversion of St Paul – John Betjeman

The Well of St Keyne - Robert Southey

The Cremation of Sam McGhee - Robert Service

The Lion and Albert – Marriot Edgar

Adventures of Isabel Ogden Nash

The Enchanted Shirt – John Hay

Through the Train Window – Christine Wheeler (Christine was formerly taught by Elaine)

Alan has found a little more about the Well at St Keyne

St Keyne's Holy Well is dedicated to the daughter of King Brychan. It is said that whoever of two newly-weds first drinks the water will gain the upper hand in the marriage. Or as the nearby plaque spells it out:

"The legend of St Keyne's Well. St Keyne was a princess who lived about 600 AD. She laid on the waters of this well a spell thus described by Carew in 1602 AD—'The quality that man or wife whom chance or choice attains first of this sacred spring to drink thereby the mastery gains.'"

The theme for our next session in March is flowers, led by Anne.

Drawing Group

We are half way through our six sessions before finishing at Easter. The subjects we have been drawing so far have been

- Jewellerv
- Umbrellas
- A picture by a famous or favourite artist or a picture in the style of a famous or favourite artist.

Our 4.6 mile shorter walk was led by Lisa and Ian. 15 of us met in the carpark of the Fox and Barrel, including a new member, Helen C. On a lovely late winter morning we walked down tracks, past the polo field, along quiet country lanes, across a few fields, and through the ancient forest at Little Budworth. At the entrance to Oulton Park we saw some classic racing cars speeding round the track. To finish we had lunch at the Fox and Barrel.

Walking from the Trevor Basin ten of us followed the Offa's Dyke Path up through the woods to a high level track and narrow lanes to the Hooson Monument and the panorama walk. We had lunch overlooking the beautiful Vale of Llangollen. Down through woodland and lanes to reach the canal, which we followed back to the junction and the highly recommended Chapel tea room.

There were 8 of us walking from The Yeld carpark to Delamere Forest. We took Forest Gate Lane to the path up to Old Pale and then down to the visitor's centre for a coffee, returning along the track to Eddisbury Lodge and back via the Sandstone Trail and Forest Gate Road. The weather was amazingly beautiful with panoramic views towards the mist in the distant hills.

Our first walk of the year was a short walk along part of the Sandstone Trail. We started from the National Trust Carpark at Bickerton Hill, taking the woodland path towards Bickerton Church and then back along the Sandstone Trail past the Kitty stone and on to Maiden Castle, returning around the edge of the National Trust land. The second walk for the Monday Group was a 4 mile walk from Burwardsley, up Hill lane, across to the Peckforton Gap, up Bulkeley Hill where the picture was taken. We returned across several fields, now dry, down to Sara Lane then back to the cars. Afterwards we had coffee at Alison's.

On Feb 20 we met in Barrow and walked a loop of about 4 miles through the Barrowmore estate to Plemstall Church. After a refreshment, we did a short detour to the Holy Well before returning along tracks, fields and lanes to our starting point. A short drive down the hill took us to the Stamford Bridge pub for coffee.

u3a office has a fantastic selection of free online learning events to suit all tastes. If you're looking for something to inspire you. Take a look at the events page: https://www.u3a.org.uk/events/educational-events

A couple of events being organised by North West Region

u3a members from all over the UK will descend on Hadrian's Wall on 10th May 2023 to celebrate the building of the wall and the influence that the wall has had on our creative lives. The wall extends from coast to coast across Northumberland and Cumbria - from Wallsend on the River Tyne in the east to Bowness-on-Solway in the west, and once marked the north western border of the Roman Empire. If you would like to take part, please see https://www.u3a.org.uk/events/off-the-wall

The NW Region would like to invite you to a Big Sing at the Quaker Meeting House in School Lane, Liverpool on May 10th. This is an all-day event for anyone who enjoys singing, whether or not they belong to a singing group. It will be led by Fredrik Holm from Lancaster & Morecambe u3a and members of the regional committee. There will be charge of £15 per person to cover room hire, printing costs, refreshments, and incidental expenses. Details are being finalised and we expect the information and booking arrangements to be available on the NW website from the middle of March.

Local Amateur Orchestra – Based in Wistaston

Mike Woollard has received this invitation from a local u3a to any budding musicians in our membership

I was wondering whether any of your U3A members would be interested in playing in a local amateur orchestra.

The South Cheshire Orchestra is a small friendly orchestra that meets on Sunday mornings in Wistaston. We're currently looking to recruit players who like classical music and play an orchestral instrument. There's no audition, people can just come along and see how they like it.

If anyone is interested, they can contact the group by email southcheshireorchestra@gmail.com or just come along to a rehearsal. We meet on Sunday mornings 10:00-12:15 at Wistaston Memorial Hall, 75 Church Lane CW2 8ER.

Ukulele Sing- Along organised by Lancs Merseyside and Deeside & Wirral networks.

An invitation has been received from the Lancs-Merseyside and Deeside & Wirral networks. They would like to extend an invitation to the South and Mid Cheshire Networks to come and join them in a Ukulele Singalong in Liverpool. The session is being held in Liverpool on the 30th March. It is open to anyone who plays ukulele OR enjoys singing - or both. You don't have to belong to an interest group. The application form can be found at the end of the bulletin.
