The speaker at our April meeting is Caroline Eames with a talk on Forensic Science 'Fact or Fiction'. This promises to be a very interesting talk on a fascinating subject. Caroline Eames' experience spans over 30 years from starting as a forensic scientist with the Home Office to a role as Senior Forensic Reporting Scientist with Cellmark Forensic Services.

March Meeting

Another excellent turn out for our March meeting. 54 members and 3 potential new members enjoyed a highly entertaining talk by Christine Stockton. Christine detailed a comprehensive history of the five stages of the growth of Flamenco in Spain, which started in Andalusia around 710. Originally ruled by the Islamic Moors, Christianity and Judaism were also tolerated. However, from the 9th century Spain was gradually re-conquered by the Christians, Granada being the last of the Moorish kingdoms to fall. Expulsion of Jews and Moors followed; those who didn't want to leave went to live with the gypsies. Around this time, following Christopher Columbus' discovery of the Americas, slave-trading began and many people of African heritage also escaped to join gypsy groups. Christine gave detailed information on the growth of Flamenco from the Cante Jondo, through Siquiriya, Solea, Tangos, Fandangos and Ida y Vuelta (the more familiar dances involving fans and shawls). In addition to the fascinating slide-show, Christine herself showcased many of the dances with lively dramatic demonstrations. Her enthusiasm for her subject was boundless and highly entertaining. A great show!

An update on u3a websites

As many of you will know, the u3a is moving around 700 websites from the current SiteBuilder platform to the new SiteWorks platform. This is no small job.

The website is our shop window to the world for prospective members and our source of communication and information to existing members. The new website will give us the opportunity to present ourselves in a much better way.

We have just started our switching process and are learning how it works in preparation for the change. Further information to group leaders and webpage editors will be given soon and you will all be made aware when the change will happen.

Around 50 sites have already made the switch, and 50 more have started which includes us.

If you are interested to see the difference, here is a link to allow you to view some of the sites that have already made the change. Each site is individual and you can see that some do far more than others. It's our choice what we will do with our site. https://siteworks.u3a.org.uk/current/live-sites/

U3A Membership Renewal 2024/25 and Gift Aid update

All members should now have received an email with information about the membership renewal process for 2024. Thank you to those who have already renewed.

Our u3a will be participating in the Gift Aid Scheme which allows charities like ours to claim 25p for every £1.00 donation we receive. Information about gift aid has been included in the membership renewal email. To participate in Gift Aid, a member must be a UK tax payer.

If you are still to renew your membership, please check the renewal email which contains all the information you need.

Information about Gift Aid can be found on our website at https://u3asites.org.uk/files/w/west-cheshire/docs/giftaid.pdf

New Interest Groups

Beginners Calligraphy

We have found someone who will help get our Calligraphy group started. Sue Robertson who lives in Waverton is an accomplished calligrapher.

We need to meet up as a group and agree a way forward:

- What do members want to get out of the group?
- Where should we meet? The Burley Hall in Waverton has a room with very good light and therefore very useful for this type of activity. The hall also has a good carpark.
- How frequently should the group meet? a 2hr session on the 1st and third Thursday in the month starting 2nd May?
- What would it cost? The cost of the room hire would be divided between the members who attend and members would pay in advance for a block of classes.
- What equipment is needed? Members would also need a startup pack including pens, ink and paper. (Sue has said she can look at this and put a starter pack together).

Learning about Artificial intelligence (AI).

The u3a have recently appointed a subject adviser for AI. This would be a small group to investigate AI and try to understand what it's all about – where is it being used now? We need a couple more people to get this off the ground.

A couple of things on this subject that might interest anyone

- The Royal Institute Christmas Lectures are available on the BBC iPlayer. Just search for The Royal Institute Christmas Lectures.
- There is currently a series on BBC Radio 4 at 4pm on a Monday called The Artificial Human. The series will also be available on BBC Sounds, the radio catch up service.

The group meets on the first Monday in the month in the Community Room at St. Alban's Church, Tattenhall, at 2pm. Members read their favourite poems which are based on a chosen theme.

There are a lot of Monday Bank Holidays. Rather than move to a different day which can prove difficult both in terms of people being free on a different day and the room being free, we will have fewer meetings for the first half of the year:

April No meeting, Bank holiday

May No meeting, Bank holiday

3rd June The topic will be Moods

July The topic will be Humour/Comedy

We welcomed Rajan and Saro to the group in March The theme for our session was Celebration and Occasions and again we had a wide variation of poems. These are the ones we read

An Ode - Francis Anne Kemble

Walking away - Cecil Day Lewis

Ulysees - Alfred, Lord Tennyson

Christmas - John Betjeman

Home Thoughts from Abroad - Robert Browning

How they Brought the Good News from Ghent to Aix - Robert Browning

A Baby is Born - Anon

Twelve members joined a leisurely short walk on 14th March, around Blakemere Moss, Delamere Forest. It was an (almost!) dry but overcast day and the going was good underfoot as we were on Forestry Commission tracks.

It was good to hear the cacophony of the water birds as we walked near the lake.
