

Member's Comment

I really have enjoyed Tai Chi sessions each week for the last 8 years. At 91 years young I can recommend these sessions, my joints have more flexibility and breathing correctly benefits the organs as explained by our instructor. I do have a painful back at times and sit down for some exercises.

The instructor is incredibly supportive. We have an excellent group of members.

Come and join us.

Margaret