

Privacy Policy - Wyre u3A

Wyre U3A treats your privacy rights seriously. This privacy policy sets out how we will deal with your 'personal information', that is, information that could identify, or is related to the identity of, an individual.

What personal information do we collect?

When you express an interest in becoming a member of Wyre U3A you will be asked to provide certain information.

This includes:

- your name
- home address
- email address
- telephone number

How do we collect this personal information?

All the information collected is obtained directly from you. This is usually at the point of your initial registration. The information will be collected via membership forms or online contact forms. The lawful basis for collecting and storing your information is due to the contractual relationship that you, as a member, have with the U3A. In order to inform you about the groups, activities and events that you can access as a member we need to store and process a certain amount of personal data.

How do we use your personal information?

We use your personal information:

- To provide our U3A activities and services to you
- For administration, planning and management of our U3A
- To communicate with you about your group activities
- To monitor, develop and improve the provision of our U3A activity

We will communicate with you regarding U3A activities by email, post, other digital methods, telephone as appropriate.

Who do we share your personal information with?

We may disclose information about you, including your personal information

- Internally - to committee members and group conveners – as required to facilitate your participation in our U3A activities;
- Externally – for products or services such as the distribution company for the direct mailing for the Trust magazines – Third Age Trust and Sources

- If we have a statutory duty to disclose it for other legal and regulatory reasons. Where we need to share your information outside of the U3A we will seek your consent and inform you as to who the information will be shared with and for what purpose.

How long do we keep your personal information We need to keep your information so that we can provide our services to you. In most instances information about your membership will not be stored for longer than 12 months. The exceptions to this are instances where there may be legal or insurance circumstances that require information to be held for longer whilst the issues are investigated or resolved. Where this is the case member/s will be informed as to how long the information will be held for and when it is deleted.

How your information can be updated or corrected

To ensure the information we hold is accurate and up to date, member's need to inform the U3A as to any changes to their personal information. You can do this by contacting the membership secretary at membership.wyre3a@gmail.com or Tel : 07787029790

Should you wish to view the information that the U3A holds on you, you can make this request by contacting the membership secretary – as detailed above

There may be certain circumstances where we are not able to comply with this request. This would include where the information may contain references to other individuals or for legal, investigative or security reasons. Otherwise we will usually respond within 14 days of the request being made.

Availability and changes to this policy

This policy is available on Wyre U3A website www.u3asites.org.uk/wyre-lancs or by request to the Chairman. This policy may change from time to time. If we make any material changes we will make members aware of this via the Newsletter and the monthly members' meetings

Approved by the committee

Oct 2020